

Impact Investing Associate

Location: Brussels

Telos Impact is the leading Brussels-based advisory on Impact Investing and Philanthropy. Mandated by several of the wealthiest European families, Telos' mission is to help them achieve their social, societal, and environmental impact ambitions.

We are currently recruiting an Impact Investment Associate to join the investment team within Telos. The purpose of our activities is to make direct (Venture Capital) and indirect (Funds) investments in European scale-up companies which focus on environment, i.e. plastic pollution, food waste & loss, water pollution, plant-based diets.

WHAT YOU WILL DO

As an Impact Investing Associate, you will contribute to the full spectrum of our investment activities: companies screening, commercial and financial analysis, due diligence, negotiations and structuring, investment recommendations preparation, and portfolio follow-up.

You will also contribute to build up our network of partners & advisors in the European impact ecosystem and promote Telos Impact. Working in a start-up environment, your list of responsibilities could be endless and will be in large part up to you.

WHAT WE NEED FROM YOU

- Strong academic background (finance, business school, etc.) ; CFA credentials is a plus
- Minimum experience in Private Equity, Venture Capital investing or consulting is a plus
- Team player, highly motivated and enthusiastic
- Strong analytical skills, detail-oriented and meticulous
- Strong social skills; ability to foster trusted relationships with portfolio companies
- Demonstrated interest in Environmental Impact
- Fluency in French and English
- Alignment with our values: joy, impact, excellence and independence

WHAT WE OFFER

- Work at the top level of Impact Investing within the private investment universe
- Work with family offices, families or individuals that have both the capacity and the ambition to have a systemic, scalable positive impact on our world
- Entrepreneurial adventure, opportunity to co-create the company as it grows
- Access to leading social impact networks; on-going training and day-to-day coaching from people experienced in Business and Public / Social Impact sector
- Passionate, strongly motivated and caring team, highly regarded in the Impact space in Western-Europe
- Attractive compensation (fixed and variable), based on your experience
